Sort order. Having the drummer quit would be counter to that goal. In Mixerman gained widespread notoriety in the Music Business when he anonymously published online his The Daily Adventures of Mixerman titled The Daily Adventures of Mixerman --a cutting satire of the way things were in the early aughts, in an industry carried away with record profits, and a marked disdain for the consumer. It's not all negative feedback - I'm glad I listened to it and I liked the production approach, it just did not live up to the others reviews.
