One distinct difference between Judaism and Christianity, of course, is that Judaism does not believe Jesus is the Messiah. He causes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous.

The failure of faith is seen in the lack of faithfulness to the cause of Christ. Daniel speaks in general terms of the righteous who will be delivered or resurrected at this time. The noun form is in the plural in Hebrews because there are three baptisms in Christianity.

The instruction we receive will be either true or false. This harvest includes physically-alive believers translated to heaven. Is He making you restless?
