There were pieces of this story that I really enjoyed which kept me reading. Books by Annie Seaton. Ana was determined and hard headed.

The romance between the characters Blake and Anastasia was plausible and sweet.

They were easy to relate to and I felt a definite connection to them. Thoughtful, romantic, witty and completely sexy in a boy next door type-of-way, Blake's not perfect, isn't afraid to ask for help. Tangling with the CEO is a great addition to the Bliss line and I have read many! When it came to the restoration department it seemed that the department was going to be closed.

Chapter Five. And Ana can't fall for the man who could become her boss—it's not Seaton's characterization is perfect.
