More food for thought: Australian theoretical physicist Percy Seymour dismissed astrology out of hand, in keeping with orthodox science, until he recognized his prejudice and decided to be truly scientific and seek to prove its worthlessness. So is it not reasonable to speculate that the same invisible electromagnetic force affects our sublimely complex brains and the senses that define human experience? This continued under the guidance of Annie Besant, who was in the vanguard of the feminist movement. Yoga offered by Nadeshwari is inclusive and exclusive, vibrates freely between. This elite will be those who think and are self aware of the society they live in, not necessarily those with the power or a long string of academic qualifications. New Age teachers and therapies claim to offer the key to finding the correspondences between all the elements of the universe, so that people may modulate the tone of their lives and be in absolute harmony with each other and with everything around them, although there are different theoretical backgrounds. In order to be converted, a person needs to make use of
