French Word of the Day. Not only does it tilt any political discussion in favor of one set of arguments; it also gives the ruling class a doubt-expelling myth that provides a constant boost to morale and esprit de corps, La MILF (French Edition) as class systems did in the days before democracy. His perspective on political change will remind City Journal readers of Joel Kotkin, in that he is more interested in how people act where they move, the jobs they take, the way they form families than in the opinions they spout.
