There is a joy of discovery that each of my students has talked to me. I was organizing at schools just like, and including, the one I had attended, but coming up the drive now in the groovy microbus, with my long hair and beads and irreverence. Fivethereareonthishand.It is the moments such as seeing a child say a new word or a baby crawl for the first time that remind me why I love what I do at Casa de Esperanza. They also encourage families to read aloud and engage with their infants, toddlers and preschoolers every day.
